Another Local Hotel.

Mr. Friemann, late of Portland, Oregon, has taken the old Paty residence in Nuuanu avenue, and transformed it into a hotel, which will be known as the "Portland." ONE ROBBERY EXPLAINED.

A Chinese Sneak Thief Makes a Confession.

Captain Chas. Klemme is weaving a network around Ah Loy, the Chinaman who is supposed to have robbed the residence of Mr. C. B. Wilson. In a cave near the School street bridge he found a lot of wearing apparel hidden under some stones. The place was frequented by Ah Loy, and no doubt he used it as a hiding-place for his plunder. The articles were found yesterday.

Although Loy denied that he robbed the Wilson premises, he has confessed that he and two natives robbed the quarters of a Japanese yardman employed by Mr. Renjes. This robbery took place on the 11th of June. Among the stolen property was a polished kukui nut. Yesterday it was found on Ah Loy, and later in the day it was identified by the Japanese. One of the natives was taken into custody last night, and the other one will be arrested this morning.

Loy has been arrested several times, and is looked upon as a professional sneak thief.

PRINCEVILLE PLANTATION.

Its Broad Acres are Now Used for Pasture.

The fields formerly used for raising cane on the Princeville plantation estate on Kauai are now used as pasture lands. The mill has been whitewashed and locked up, and to prevent any damage to the machinery, most of it has been taken apart and stored away. Notwithstanding the abandonment of the plantation, it is said that the stockholders receive a dividend from lands rented to Chinese. It is said that about $20,000 annually comes from this source alone. As fast as purchasers present themselves, small cottages formerly occupied by employees are sold for old lumber.

Since the plantation shut down many people have moved away, and now there remains but three white families in the Hanalei district.

The Hanalei valley is one of the prettiest spots imaginable. At the landing there is a splendid sand beach which extends for about a mile in length. Close to the shore stands the residence of Deputy-Sheriff Deverill. The house is an old landmark, and it is roomy and comfortable. Mr. Deverill furnishes accommodations for tourists and others at very reasonable rates. A visit to Hanalei will never be regretted.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

A Jealous Husband Shoots Without Giving Any Warning.

In the district court yesterday Nawai, alias D. Nawai Nawailou, was committed for trial before the circuit court, on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. On the night of the 8th inst., while in a jealous frame of mind, he took a shot at his wife and wounded her. He then fired twice at Ioela, a hack driver.

The wife was in court yesterday morning and appeared against her husband. She stated that she was at George Shaw's place, near Kamaikapili church, when the shooting took place. Her husband stood at the door and without making any remark, he commenced to blaze away. She stated that herself and Ioela were not alone in a room, but on the contrary several friends were present in the same apartment. Her testimony was corroborated by two other witnesses.

The defendant was ordered to put up $1000 bail. C. W. Ashford appeared for the defense and Antonio Rosa assisted in prosecuting.
